

Self-Advocates of Indiana, Inc. proudly announces The Statewide Self-Advocacy Conference for 2006 September 7 & 8, 2006

“People Power - Working together for Change”

We self-advocates and our staff and family members will come together from all over Indiana to renew our commitment to each other and to our mission statement which is:

“An organization of citizens who speak up and educate for equal rights, respect, and inclusion for all in the community.”

Self-Advocates of Indiana, Inc.(SAI) is an independent, not-for-profit organization led by and for people with developmental disabilities. “We are adults with intellectual and developmental disabilities who believe that people with developmental disabilities have gifts and talents to offer; ought to be accepted as equals; can make choices based on reliable information; and should have the same rights and responsibilities as other citizens under the law.”

Our Conference:

While we self-advocates educate ourselves on community jobs and homes, wellness, and service system issues; our staff and family members will be provided with up-to-date information on issues of interest to them.

Our conference will be held at the Bloomington Convention Center, 302 S. College Ave., Bloomington, IN. The Courtyard by Marriott hotel is connected to the Convention Center. A block of rooms has been arranged with a special conference rate.

We will begin with registration at 9am on Thursday, September 7 and end at 3:15 p.m. on Friday, September 8.

Can we count on you?

Securing award-winning national speakers is costly. Self-Advocates of Indiana is steadfast in its desire to bring cutting-edge information to its constituents at this conference.

A sponsorship from you will provide us with the financial resources we need to bring quality information to our conference plus provide scholarships for self-advocates and families who otherwise will not be able to attend.
